Food Bank Participation

Please remember one can of food for each Campout for each person so we can have a great community project for our Peninsula Food Bank. Next Campout: Rudds Creek RV, May 6-7.

Skip & Kathy Gordon's Tennessee Trip:

Our trip to Tennessee and back. Through Kathy's great planning we managed to visit the Heartwood Visitors Center in Abington, the Museum of Appalachia, and the Country Music Hall of Fame. We also visited a Virginia State Park that is new to us, the Staunton River State Park, where we learned that it is one of the few remaining locations on the East Coast with minimal light pollution. While we were there we enjoy watching a group of star watchers camped on the field with their telescopes. We camped in the Cabelas parking lot in Bristol on the way out, a decision that rewarded us with extended shopping time and allowed us to collect a good bit of highly essential camping supplies. Nashville was loaded with BBQ and we did our best to try a bunch. All in all this trip was pretty fine considering that the main reason we were traveling was to attend a wedding.

Fort Monroe Rally goes to the dogs:

Conane & Tori.".....Scrappy & Nicky.....Rubby & Soxie.....
Destefano.....Lassiter.....Dollar.....

We had five trailers, the Lassiters, Worcesters, Destefanos, Dollars, & Werners. We had a great time and weather until Saturday night when buckets of rain came down. Saturday we had 16 members show up for dinner at the restaurant and one guess -Aubrey Baank, ( Dollar's grandson ) who enjoyed spaghetti and walking the dogs.
